For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? Matthew 16:26

January 3, 2012

Dear Parents and Friends,

Have we ever really thought deeply about the second half of Matthew 16:26? Except for the smallest handful of skeptics (who really aren't being honest with themselves – see Eccl. 3:11 and Psalm 14:1), it's almost universally acknowledged that man is a spiritual being or has a soul – a fact undeniably present in religious expression around the world. So who's right? Jesus Christ authoritatively settled the question as to which religion is correct through His powerful teaching, His miracles, His resurrection from the dead, His fulfillment of prophecy and attestation to the accuracy of Scripture, His transformed disciples, and His testimony, saying that "I and the Father are one (John 10:30)," and "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through me (John 14:6)."

So what does this have to do with education and re-enrollment at Culpeper Christian School? Everything for people like us, who unashamedly value the soul – CCS has the wonderful privilege of helping you as parents to address, according to Jesus, your child's deepest need – to nurture the soul! And we seek to help you do this while imparting to your child(ren) an exceptional, well-rounded, biblically-integrated, academic education with many opportunities for enriching experiences.

So are you on board for another year? On behalf of the Board, the staff, and myself, we'd like to say thank you for your perseverance and enthusiasm in this wonderful endeavor of Christian education, and we'd like to invite you back for the 2012-13 school year. Enclosed you will find registration information for said year, and, of course, we are all very excited about the future and your involvement with us for years to come!

Please return your application by Tuesday, January 31st. By doing so you will take advantage of our discounted application fee and reserve your child(ren)'s spot in next year's classroom. Also, don't forget to tell like-minded friends, neighbors, and church members about the great education your child(ren) is receiving here. Measured growth enables us to further enhance our program.

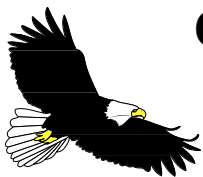

As you will notice from the forms and for the fourth year in a row, tuition for 1st-8th has been raised by exactly zero percent! CCS, however, prayerfully has decided to raise tuition by small amounts for preschool and kindergarten.

In closing, I can say without reservation, that it's truly a pleasure to work with each of you to bring the very best to our children, and I continue to look forward to greater things to come! If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me or the ladies in the school office. Continue to joyfully persevere in telling this generation the praises of the Lord (Psalm 78:4)!

Serving Him together,

Michael Owings
